

Typical Floor Plans

These floor plans are examples of the many floor plans or suites which could be available. Or this could show how your neighbor's office maybe configured which may accommodate your business expansion. With the various combinations of floor plans you could combine 2 "C" suites and 1 "B" suite thus giving you 2,250 sq.ft. (1,800 sf. of office, 450 sf. of storage/warehouse). Additionally, you will always have the ability to expand in the park with out penalty.
